

Outdoor Living Supply Acquires Landscapers Depot

Offering a Better Way to Grow.

Rochester, MN – October 29, 2021 – Outdoor Living Supply (“OLS”), a distribution platform for outdoor living products with a focus on hardscapes, announced today it has acquired Landscapers Depot, a leading supplier of landscape, hardscape and masonry supplies to the southern New Hampshire, northern Massachusetts, and Merrimack Valley regions.

For over twenty years, Landscapers Depot has been a top supplier of high-quality wholesale and retail landscape, hardscape and masonry supply to the New England professional and consumer markets. Offering a fully stocked nursery - in addition to a robust selection of hardscapes materials, hand-carved granite, an onsite showroom, design consultation services, equipment rentals, “grind your own mulch” capabilities and cost-effective delivery - Landscapers Depot is truly a one-stop shop. The partnership with OLS will help Landscapers Depot strengthen its sales and distribution capabilities, as well as drive growth in new and existing geographies.

“We are excited to welcome Landscapers Depot to the OLS family and expand our footprint into New England. Landscapers Depot has a talented team with a deep knowledge in nursery, mulch, soils and an innovative bulk delivery solution which speaks to their longstanding customer-centric culture,” said Brian Price, CEO of OLS. “The Price family has known Tom and Kellie for over 20 years; I know they share our commitment to both employee development and to providing quality products, exceptional service and superior value to our customers.”

Tom and Kellie Greer, owners of Landscapers Depot, added, “We are excited to partner with Outdoor Living Supply. We feel a strong connection to the OLS team; they understand this industry and have the resources and commitment to innovation needed to take our business to the next level. We chose OLS, not only for their ability to enhance growth, but for their dedication to the legacy we have built. OLS will provide great opportunities for our employees and loyal customers alike.”
